Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the grievance of the petitioner is that the respondents 2 to 4 are frequently visiting his house, interfering with his personal life and liberty and calling him to the police station without registering any case against him whatsoever.

Counter has been field stating that the petitioner is not required in any of the pending cases and there was no necessity or occasion for the respondents to call the petitioner to the police station. It is further stated that a Dossier Criminal Sheet bearing No.971 in DCRB, Guntur is being maintained in Vedullapalli Police station to know the activities of the petitioner. The petitioner was involved in dacoity cases i.e. Cr.No.13/80 under Section 395 of the Indian Penal Code of Inavolu Police Station of Guntur District, Cr.No.11/79 under Section 395 of IPC of Darsi Police Station of Prakasam District and Cr.No.26/79 under Section 395 of IPC of Kankipadu Police Station of Krishna District. Apart from these cases the petitioner admitted that there are two illicit arrack selling cases pending against him before the II Additional Munsif Magistrate, Bapatla in C.C.Nos.19 and 220 of 2005 and his wife was convicted for six months simple imprisonment and fined Rs.1,000/- in C.C.No.229 of 2004 by the II Additional Munsif Magistrate, Bapatla. It is further stated that the petitioner is also a suspect in Cr.No.45 of 2005 under Section 302 IPC of Vedullapalli Police Station.

In view of the aforesaid counter, it cannot be said that the respondents are illegally interfering with the personal life and liberty of the petitioner without registering any case against him.

The writ petition is accordingly dismissed.
